

Sutton Coldfield Catenians invite you to join them for an evening of learning, fun and meeting friends you never knew you had!

September 2021

“Kill as few patients as possible!”

Three course dinner with guest speaker
Dr. Amanda Burls, Emeritus Professor of Public Health,
City University,
Oxford University

Hear the latest thinking on evidence-based healthcare and practice as Dr. Burls gives us a talk on how using research evidence can help save lives and improve patient outcomes
